Nineteen Fifty-four

THE RENOCABI OF REIDSVILLE HIGH

Gianni Bivona

SCHOOL A STUDENT PUBLICATION.....1954

July 28, 1954

Dear Jimmy,

Well, I finally did get around to writing in your annual. I guess that you thought that I ~~never~~ would though.

I do trust that you'll take good care of dear old Reidsville High next year. (But I really don't see how it could ever be the same since some of our (ha!) friends (?) are not going to be there to improve the ~~same~~ place) - That wasn't suppose to sound sarcastic!

I don't suppose I'll ever forget those many heart-to-heart talks we have had. What would we have ever done without having someone to tell all our troubles to. You know what about! Or maybe I should have said about whom!!

I'll think about you and your troubles next year.

Best of Everything and Love

DEDICATION

Proudly we dedicate our 1954 Renocahi to one who has not only been one of our teachers and athletic coaches but also a counselor and friend----MR. J. W. KNIGHT.

FOREWORD

We treasure the memories of our school life and realize that they will become even more priceless to us through the years. Perhaps through the pages of this volume of the "Renocahi" we can portray to others and can keep for ourselves some of our cherished memories. We present, not as a great literary product, but simply as a picture of happy years in Peidsville High School... a record of.

"Peggy Barker"

Jimmie, I have enjoyed going to school with you very, very much.
 If it weren't for you
 at a lot of dull moments
 I don't know what we'd do. Would come to.
 Keep going and you'll go a long way.
 Love,
 Clara

ABOUT THE SEASON

Reidsville High's Golden Lions, closing out their 1953 season on Nov. 13, with a 27-6 win over Mineral Springs, came up with a good 6-3 record for the year. The Lion coaching staff, headed by George Wingfield, along with line coach J. W. Knight and Jr. varsity coach Bo Sacrinity, are to be congratulated for a job well done. Working with perhaps one of the youngest Lion squads ever assembled, Coach Wingfield and his assistants laid the groundwork for later teams definitely marked for greatness.

The season produced a new running star in flashy soph. Don Coker, who scampered for four touchdowns against Hanes in the Lion's 39-13 triumph. Guard Charles Hoover, playing his third season as a regular, established himself as one of the state's finest linemen, as did tackly Kelly Minyard, both making the all-conference team. Two of the Lion victories, both 7-6 victories over Hargrave and Tri-City respectively, were decided by the talented toe of Big John Medley, the hard-charging fullback. The hard running of co-capt. Bobby Cooke, along with the steady quarterbacking of David Bray greatly aided the Lion cause also. The Lions' major casualty came in the Thomasville game, in the form of a broken leg, belonging to the well-liked scatback, Jimmy Trotter, who established himself this year, through his hustle and determination, as an outstanding contender for future honors. The Lions of 1954 will sorely miss the dependable services of co-capt. William Farling, who played his guard position in fine fashion, along with center Harry Wilson, the other regular graduating. Also leaving the Lions are Max Dixon, Fred Fleagle, Raeford Roberts, Gene Walters, and managers Otis Sizemore and Billy Johnson.

Reidsville's Bobby Cooke is tackled by Greensboro's Charlie Highfill after picking up seven yards. The Lion player in the right foreground is John Medley.

Coach George Wingfield talks things over with Charles Hoover, Kelly Minyard, and John Medley, prior to the Tri-City game. The Lions went on to win, 7-6.

Reidsville's Charles Hoover, indicated by arrow, recovers fumble by High Point's David Fagg. Bison Quarterback Sonny Butler (31) looks on.

Below: Lion Bobby Cooke hurdles past Greensboro's Dick Yow (8) on a 16-yd. gain. The tackle was made by Jimmy Jones, indicated by arrow.

Greensboro's Doug White stumbles for no gain, as Reidsville's Donnie Coker braces for the tackle. The other Lion player, on the ground resulting from the block by no. 11, is David Amos.

ABOUT THE TEAM

Coach Hoy Isaacs' Golden Lion cagesters are, to date, sporting a 11-4 record, with their losses coming at the hands of highly-rated Tri-City (2), and AAA leaders, Greensboro, Led by the outstanding play of team capt. Hollis Robertson, along with the steady support of Doc Alston, and Bobby Cooke. The Lions have established themselves as strong contenders for regional honors. The lions also have a fine passer in Alex Smith, and a driving player in Donnie Coker.

The keenest shooting eye, from the outside at least, belongs to sophomore Clark Holt, while forward Levi Stanley has proven his ability under pressure throughout the season. All in all, Coach Isaacs has produced a team which the school is proud of, and it appears that he will continue to do so. From a squad of eleven, only Hollis Robertson, Doc Alston, and Arnold Moore graduate, so watch out for the Lions of the future.

ABOUT THE TEAM

The Lady Lions have thus far established themselves as a fine representative of the community. Sporting an 8-6 record to this point, they have, however, had the tough luck of losing three of their games by three points or less. Even after those heart-breaking defeats, the girls have come back to win four in a row.

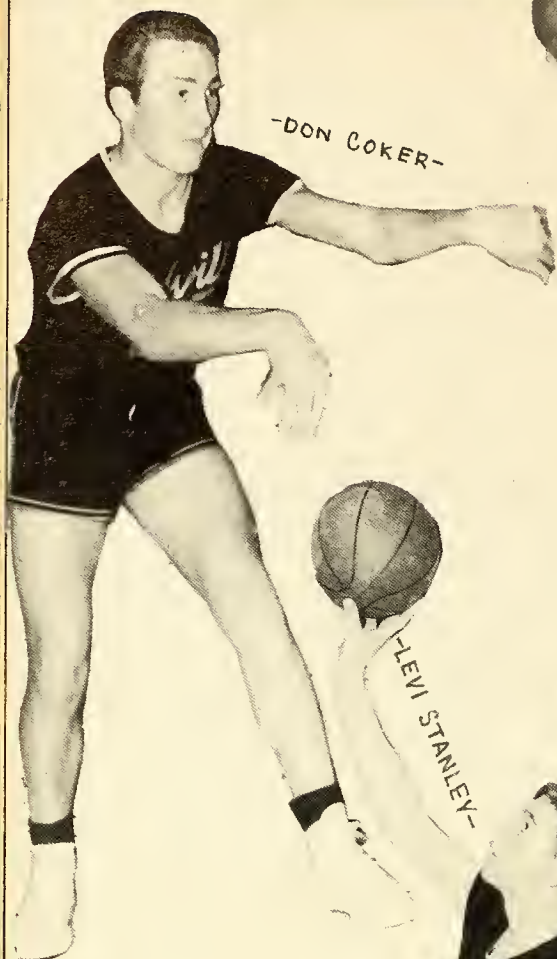

The team boasts two outstanding scorers in Co-captains Ann Black and Shirley Williams, both constantly hitting 20 or more points per game. The fine passing of Joan Fulp, the other regular forward, coupled with the outstanding defensive play of guards Shelby Garner, Linda Pace, and Diana Standahl, go together in forming the fine, well-balanced squad for this season. Coach Jean Scott must indeed be praised for producing such an outstanding contender. This year marks the final season for only three seniors, Ann Black, Betty Lou Warf, and Shirley Williams, but their absence will be heavily felt during the coming season.

Baseball

The completion of the 1953 baseball season found the Golden Lions in second place in the conference, not far behind Gray High, the eventual State Champions. The Lions complied a 13-5 record, losing only to AAA Burlington, Hanes, Mt. Airy, and Gray twice. The list of Lion victims included such teams as North Davidson, Walkertown, Mt. Airy, Hanes, Wentworth, and Mineral Springs.

The 1954 Lions will field a fine, well-balanced squad, minus only four boys from the previous year. Ably captained by Hollis Robertson, this team will undoubtedly be an established threat in contending for State honors. Congratulations go to Coach J. W. Knight for his splendid job in fielding a fine team. Those graduating this year are Hollis Robertson, Arnold Moore, Bud Ramsey, and Raeford Roberts.

WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER...

Golden Years

Memories

Class Prophecy

In the year 1964, I spent a day in my old home town of Reidsville-far away from the noisy grinding of the cars that were dodging each other on the various streets in New York City. The experience of going back to my early haunts allowed me to thumb freely the keyboard of my memory.

I keep dwelling on the many persons who have passed out of that childhood circle that was once so crowded with intimate, jostling personalities. I find it difficult to become reconciled to the thought that countless scores of that friendly multitude are somewhere with the unconsidered routine of this daily life, and yet I do not know much of the associations they have formed. They have gone their separate ways, built homes, perhaps, in far-distant states.

The town of Reidsville had changed greatly in the past ten years. I found there had been a new hospital constructed by Raeford Roberts Construction Co. Some of the men in this company were: Max Dixon, Hollis Robertson, Mike Fargis, William Farling, Arnold Moore, Bobby Talley, Tommy Dixon, Jerry Ware, William Stallings, and Calvin Poole.

In this hospital I found many of the nurses were graduates of my class. The Superintendent of Nurses, Mary Ann Dudley, had under her supervision: Misses Judy Zimmerman, Ronald Chaney, Ann Lea Pettigrew, Glenda Duncan, Marjorie Waynick, Myrtle McAnnaly, Bobby Jean Teague, Patsy Chrismon, Mary Sue Schoolfield, Sara Wright, and Sara Rumley. They have added a few new doctors to their staff, too. They are the honorable Drs. Roger Cobb, Fred Fleagle, Jr., David White, and Glenn Clark, Jr. Maxine Dixon is secretary for Dr. Clark.

Along with a new hospital, Reidsville had added a new clinic. This clinic, run by women, had as its president, Peggy Brannock; Vice-president, Sandra Dent; Secretary, Alice DeLapp; and Treasurer, Frances Alston. The nurses in this clinic were: Dorothy Arnold, Marie Barham, Yvonne Baynes, Betty Bray, Mary Earles, and Dorothy Hall.

Continuing my tour through the "new" Reidsville, I found a great television station. There were many of my friends employed here. Kaye Bugher is one the CBS-TV panel for a famous quiz program. Peggy Smith has now replaced Maxine on the Milton Berle Show, and Hazel Moore is Joe Friday's secretary.

This television station, WXYZ, had many secretaries. A few were Patricia Hooper, Janet Williams, Nancy Robertson, Barbara Lawson, Christine Cliborne, Rebekah Dickerson, Carolyn Hash, and Katherine Canady. As I was touring WXYZ, I saw Calvert Drinnon, a world traveler and explorer, after his show with Roberta Heffner, the world's greatest fashion designer.

As I passed several shops I found the names of them were: Craddock's Reducing Salon; Stewart's Slipper Salon; Strickland's Beauty Salon; Bowman's School of Dancing; Maus's Sports Car Shop; Borland's Dress Shoppe; and I found Peggy Sebastian busy at work in her office building. I stopped by Ramsey's Book Store and purchased a copy of my Nobel Prize winning book My Highest Goal.

As I entered the new Reidsville High School, Mr. Bill Whitlow, principal, greeted me. Some of the teachers I found were: Ann Black, basketball coach; Bobby Butler, junior English teacher; Eugene Walter, senior math teacher; Henry Douglass, Ronald Fennell and E. C. Merricks band Directors; and Otis Sizemore, history teacher. Robbie Hunt Barker is the telephone operator at the high school.

Before going to the Y. M. C. A. where Donald Brooks was manager, I stopped by Gardner's Drug Store to find that Carolyn Smith had moved from "soda-jerk" to pharmacist. There I found much information about my classmates. I heard that Ruth Gordon, Martha Jo Hopkins, Rebecca Key, Anne Sloan Lewis, Barbara Martin, Elva Lee Perdue, Dorothy Pegram, Gladys Pruitt, Carolyn Rand, Lucille Robertson, Eunice Saunders, Patricia Smith, Shirley Williams, Patsy Wilson, and Gypsy Yount, are happily married and living in their suburban homes.

Not all of the friends of my class were in Reidsville. Many had left their home town to go to a larger place. Jane Burts is head of the Association of Nurses in New York City; Billy Marshall is an officer in the U. S. Navy; Mary Lou Jones is a commercial artist in New York; Delores Gibson, also in New York, is writer of the Molly Mayfield Column.

Betty Lou Warf is First Lady in the White House in Washington. Anna Montgomery is in the field of Medicine and parttime organist in a New York Church. Lady Barbara Wilkerson is a registered nurse in Virginia. Betty Sue Haynes and Frances Weaver are Dress Designers in New York. Doc Alston trains horses in Texas. Vivian Harvey is an officer in the Navy Nurse Corps.

Myra Springs is a famous ballerina in Paris, France. Bobby Hill is a singer and song writer in New York. Anna Dill is in Washington as secretary for a government official. Alton Pearson is a captain in the Air Force in Germany. Ronald Freeman is a radio engineer in Baltimore, Md. Lois Puritt is doing missionary work in many parts of the world. Martha Ellen Harbison is a successful primary teacher in Florida.

Kenneth McKinney is in Washington running for the presidency. Gay Ware is a famous air line hostess. Billy Johnson is trainer-manager for the Cleveland Browns of the American football league. Rollin Curran, Bob Lowe, and Harry Wilson are famous scientists in New York.

After this short visit to Reidsville, I decided that if we were successful-or were to be partially successful-the old, old winds will blow gently over the land; the old, old thoughts will generously rewarm our hearts; and there together, like William Morris in his EARTHLY PARADISE, we shall freely indulge our memories of the past.

"Memories vague of half-forgotten things,
Not true nor false,
but sweet to think upon."
